

2018–2019 TRANSFER MAJOR UPDATES

The launch of ASSIST Next Generation has been postponed resulting in the delayed publication of the 2017-18 and 2018-2019 system wide articulation agreements on ASSIST.org.

In light of these events, UCLA will honor the major preparatory coursework listed the 2016-17 articulation agreements on ASSIST.org for transfer applicants for the majority of majors for the Fall 2019 term. Please consult the Transfer Admission Guide website for more information at admission.ucla.edu/TAG.

UCLA is committed to strengthening the transfer preparation process for our community college constituents.

2018-19 UCLA MAJOR UPDATES

View the 2018-19 UCLA Major Updates document for current information about new majors and majors that have changes.

admission.ucla.edu/TAG

TRANSFEROLOGY

View how coursework is articulated from your school to UCLA with Transferology. In conjunction with our Transfer Admission Guide and the 2018-2019 UCLA Major Updates document, you may consult Transferology to understand how your coursework will be articulated.

transferology.com

- On the Transferology webpage, click the link that says “Find a Replacement Course” to see if your school offers an equivalent to a specific UCLA course.
- Please note: Transferology is an advisory tool only, and does not guarantee transferability. Actual course transferability is subject to change without notice, at the discretion of the UCLA Registrar’s Office and UCLA Undergraduate Admission.

QUESTIONS

After utilizing the resources above, if you have any further questions about articulation, you can email: articulation@admission.ucla.edu